AT ADAMS TODAY

Held Under $300 Bonds.

The continued case of Richard Harper, for burglary of Goodell's store at Zylonia was tried at the district court Tuesday morning and the court room was filled with attendants. H. L. Harrington represented C. J. Goodell and T. F. Cassidy appeared for Harper. A number of witnesses testified and from the evidence gleaned it was not proven that Harper was guilty though there seems to be little doubt but that he was in the vicinity of the store that evening. He claimed that on that evening after calling on a lady friend he afterwards met a fellow named Frank Brady on Kipper avenue which is a short distance south of the store. However Brady says he met Harper in front of Mr. Goodell's store. The most damaging evidence against Harper was his actions when it became known that the burglary was committed. Here the attorney, Harrington, had a strong case, he followed Harper's every move from that time until his arrest and showed that the defendant had shown undesirable signs of uneasiness when he hired a bicycle and rode to the Anthony farm on the East road and told Brady about the burglary and said he (Harper) was suspected. Lawyer Cassidy made a strong fight for Harper and the case was put over to the grand jury and Harper was held under $300 bonds. He was unable to procure them and went to jail.

Arrested for Larceny.

John Grace of Cheshire, a lad about 12 years old, was in court here Tuesday morning charged with the larceny of $100. The facts seem to be that last Saturday L. Northrup was watching a ball game and had $100 with him. When he returned home the money was gone. A search was instituted but the money could not be found. For some reasons young Grace was watched and it was noticed that he had been spending money quite freely and so he was arrested by Sheriff O'Brien of this town. He said he found the money and had put some of it under Loyd's barn in Cheshire. The sheriff accompanied the boy there and found $89. The rest was spent. The case was continued until Friday and Mr. Grace, the boy's father, went bail for $300.

A Pretty Wedding.

A pretty church wedding occurred at St. Thomas church this morning at 8 o'clock, when Miss Mary L. Walsh of Maple Grove was united in marriage to Paul Cassidy of Arlington, N. J., by Rev. Rev. Cayne. The bride wore a gown of cream silk trimmed with pearl lace. Her sister Ella was bridesmaid and was attired in green. Forty guests. After the ceremony a reception was tendered at the bride's home in Maple Grove and in the afternoon the couple left for their home in Arlington, N. J. The couple are estimable young people and have the best wishes of a host of friends. They were the recipients of handsome and useful presents.

Local Delegates Attended.

A number of local delegates of Hermann Sons of Harrowart, attended the sixth annual convention of the grand lodge of the Massachusetts district at Manchester, N. H., Sunday. A reception and ball was held the previous evening and after the business session Sunday a concert was given in which the local delegates participated. The capital of the lodge has increased $8000 and of the grand $800 during the past year. The total membership of the district is now 458 and of the auxiliaries 234. It was voted to incorporate the grand lodge under the laws of Massachusetts. Carl Scholz of this town was chosen second vice-president and a representative to the national grand lodge.

Trolley Ride and Picnic.

The regular meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. was held in the 'Congregation house Tuesday evening. Rev. Miles B. Fisher, instead of the regular leader, conducted the meeting. At the close of the regular prayer meeting a business meeting was held and the society decided to have a trolley ride and picnic Saturday afternoon, August 7. Special electric cars will leave here and go to Williamstown and on returning stop at Cole's grove where the society will enjoy a basket picnic.

Match Shoot.

A match rifle shoot is being arranged between the members of Company M to take place at the rifle range, Saturday afternoon. It will be between the married and single men of the company for championship honors. James E. Cadigan will captain the married men and George Crozier the single men. There will be 10 on a side and an exciting match is assured.

Death Claim Paid.

Supt. P. J. Stanton of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company paid a death claim of $500 to Mary and Ann Doran Cunningham, on the life of their late mother, Mrs. Margaret Cunningham. The deceased was insured for $1000 and $500 awaits the order of the administrator of the estate.

Band Concert.

The band concert by Germania band to have been given at the band stand two weeks ago will be rendered this evening. The program as previously printed in THE TRANSCRIPT will be placed in J. W. Baker's store window on Centre street.

The first show of the season will probably be held at the opera house August 26. In court Tuesday morning Dr. H. A. Smith was sentenced to 30 days in the house of correction for drunkenness.

Albert Jones, clerk in C. E. Legate's clothing store, is indisposed at his home on Randall street.

A daughter was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spowysa of Hoosac street. Mrs. James Lettice and granddaughter of Bridgeport, Conn., are guests of Miss Sarah Welch at Renslow.

Captain H. O. Hicks as yet is unable to get down street, as the result of a badly sprained ankle.

D. J. Keefe of Brooklyn, N. Y., visited friends here Tuesday. He is a police officer in that city.

HEMLOCK BROOK.

Mr. Fred Bailey and wife of Troy have been the guests of Mrs. C. P. Galusha. The latter's sister, Mrs. Mamie Cox, of Baltimore, is also with her for a few weeks.

Mrs. H. L. Gardner of Marlboro, with her children, is visiting her father and sister here.

Day after weather beginning two or three weeks earlier than usual has greatly retarded laying, and the rain and winds have knocked oats and rye into all manner of shapes. It is likely that more hand mowing will have to be done than usual, and that the few reapers in town will be in demand where it is possible to use them. Most everything has been kept back except potato bugs and weeds, both of which have not ceased to boom.

George Walker has begun picking on his two or three acres of raspberries, the first of which he took into market Saturday.

It looks as though potatoes were going to rot badly. Few rotten ones have been found yet, but the vines are unusually tender and show signs of decay.

FLORIDA.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Thatcher took a carriage drive to West Dover, Vt., last Saturday to spend a few days with friends and relatives.

Samuel Martin of North Adams has bought the standing grass on the farm of Ansel Lloyd and will cut the same.

Mrs. Della Fowler is at William Raycraft's.

Daniel Bradley, who died in North Adams last week, was formerly a resident of this place and moved from here to North Adams last spring. Mr. Bradley was a young man with many friends. The family have the sympathy of their many friends in this place. The funeral was held on Friday, Rev. Mr. Coburn of this place attending.

While Miles Tower was working in the hay field last week, two fine large deer came through the lot where he was working. Mr. Tower reports that they are the largest seen in this section, having branching antlers and looking in very good condition. Had it been October instead of July probably Mr. Tower would have taken a trip to Vermont with them in order to secure one.

Newton Rice is home from Longmeadow, on account of poor health.

STAMFORD.

Our Union services are very interesting and enjoyable.

Rev. and Mrs. Winans and son are having a delightful time visiting in the region of the White mountains, New Hampshire.

Charles Bridges is home from Boston to spend a short time. Gretter Bridges is having a vacation and is now stopping at home.

Playing is somewhat prolonged this year on account of the rainy weather.

Several are thinking of going to Saratoga on Wednesday of this week on the excursion.

The Ladies' Aid society meeting of the M. E. church is held this Tuesday with Mrs. Foster.

The lawn party last Friday night at Charles Bishop's was quite poorly attended on account of the rain.

Open-Air Tea Party-Good Piece of Work-She Stopped the Horse-Not too Old to Fish-Reducing a Ledge-Music in the Adirondacks-Bridge will Soon be Here.

Reducing a Ledge.

Joseph Guilboe is digging stone from a ledge in Waterman & Moore's lumber yard to break up and use with cement under the foundation of the high school house. The contract calls for a preparation of this kind one foot in thickness under the foundation walls. This stone breaks up well, it is a handy place to get it and the excavation will make quite an Improvement to the lumber yard. Mr. Guilboe is given the stone for taking it away and the deal is a profitable one for both parties.

She Stopped the Horse.

Mrs. Marshall Saunders drove up in front of Neyland & Quinn's store Tuesday morning and got out of the wagon to go in and do some trading. Soon after she got out her horse, a large and spirited animal, was frightened by a wagon umbrella and started to turn sharply around. Mrs. Saunders did not faint or scream, but sprang with the quickness of a cat for the horse's head and stopped him in time to save the wagon from being overturned. Several men hastened to her assistance, but found her in perfect control of the situation when they reached the spot.

Good Piece of Work.

A good piece of work is being done on the road on the hill by the west cemetery. The road is being straightened and a ledge is being blasted to improve the grade. The fence has been removed from the front of the cemetery and a sidewalk will be built. The bridge at the foot of the hill will be raised a few feet. This will allow some filling to be done in the hollow, which will improve the grade of the road at that point. A special appropriation for this work was made last spring and the improvement will be very noticeable when the work is finished.

Bridge will Soon Be Here.

President Richmond of the Hoosac Valley street railroad says the new bridge will soon arrive from Wilmington, Del. where it is manufactured by the Edge-moore Bridge company. It was to be delivered by August 1, but there has been a little delay. Mr. Richmond thinks the bridge will be here before the middle of August. It will be set up and ready for use very soon after it arrives.

Open-Air Tea Party.

A number will go from this village to the tea party to be given in Riverside park at Blackinton Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Union church in that village. There will be athletic sports and other forms of entertainment and refreshments will be served, tables being set for 300 persons. Admission will be 10 cents and the proceeds will go to the church.

Music in the Adirondacks.

That is what there will be when Frank Clark and Clarence Brindle, who started Tuesday, get there, for they went equipped not only with rifles, fishing tackle and other necessary camp accessories, but Mr. Clark took his violin also. With this he will be able to pleasantly while away the evening hours about the camp fire and to offset in some degree the nightly howling of the beasts of the wilderness.

Not Too Old to Fish.

Augustus Torrey, 54 years old, got one of the fishermen of his neighborhood to rig up a tackle for him the other day and then went out to the brook not far from his home and caught one of the biggest trout caught in town this season. It weighed nearly three-quarters of a pound. The "boys" will have to work some time to beat this.

Miss Nora Burke of Troy is the guest of Mrs. Luke Madden.

Sheriff Eldridge and family are expected home from Hatfield Thursday. They would have been home sooner had not Mr. Eldridge's son been taken sick there.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Mather of Ashfield arrived in town Friday afternoon and returned home today.

Professor Milham of Kinderhook, N. Y., is in town for a short time.

Miss Margaret Cole left town Tuesday for a week's visit with friends in Winsted, Conn.

Mr. Smith of South Williamstown, who has a milk route in this village, and who has been buying with milk of S. A. Hickox, has contracted with Clayton Foster to supply him with milk for three years and will move to the Thomas Connick place on the west road. As Mr. Foster's farm is between that place and the village the arrangement is a very convenient one for Mr. Smith.

Mrs. David Miller of Cole avenue is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bowen of Michigan were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Northup over Sunday.

W. H. Mason found one of his horses dead in the stall Tuesday morning. The horse appeared all right the night before and the cause of its death is a mystery.

Mrs. W. L. Crozier and Miss Nellie Kraft left town today for a vacation trip to Southern Vermont.

Mrs. Goss of Waterford, Vt., is visiting her daughter, Mr. Harrison White. Mrs. White's sister, Miss Geneva Goss of Denver, Col., is also staying with her for a while.

Miss Julia Kellogg returned Thursday from a visit to her sister in Western New York.

Mrs. Balchoir of Bridgeport, Conn., is boarding with Mrs. Frederick Northup.

Mrs. N. H. Baron and her daughter left Sunday night for Montreal.

Robbie White returned on Saturday from a visit in Troy.

Mrs. S. J. Kellogg and her daughter, Maude, have gone on a week's driving tour in different parts of Berkshire county.

S. C. Pratt who has been in poor health all summer is falling. He is not expected to recover.

Quite a number went on the excursion to Saratoga today, conducted by the Christian Endeavor society of the Methodist church in connection with the Baptist Sunday school excursion from North Adams. More would have gone if the weather had been pleasanter.

S. G. Tenney left town Friday for the Adirondacks, where he will remain for two or three weeks.

Summer luxuries

Don't think of going through this summer without certain needed articles, among which are a straw hat, a palm leaf fan, and a piece of rattan furniture.

Have as many pieces of rattan as your house and purse will permit; it is an essential, two will be a luxury. The cost is small; you can reach the borderland of luxury by this route very inexpensively.

There is no summer furniture like rattan; it is warmly associated with the period of youth; yet, like the man who blew his hand to warm it and his soup to cool it, rattan cools and warms alike; but its cooling mission brings it warmest praise.

Rattan furniture is light, but almost indestructible by ordinary wear; it is the cleanest of all furniture; it is the coolest; it is the most inexpensive, and, unlike any other, it harmonizes with all colors and styles of furnishings.

UNLICENSED DOG.

Thomas Kalp Before the Court on Complaint of Officer Smith.

Dog Officer Smith had Thomas Kalp before the court this morning on the charge of keeping an unlicensed dog. Kalp keeps a fruit store near the foot of Main street and has also kept a big dog. When notified by Officer Smith the other day that the tax on the dog should be paid Kalp claimed he did not own the dog, having given him to Fred Rivers, the young son of the people with whom Kalp boards. The boy paid the tax and he also claimed on the witness stand that Kalp gave him the dog three days after Christmas. The evidence, however, showed that no one but Kalp and the boy knew about this until the trouble about the tax came up and Officer Smith threatened to shoot the dog. Lawyer Thatcher prosecuted the case and John H. Mack appeared for the defendant. When the evidence was finished Mr. Mack started to argue the case, but as he did so John Notch of Braytonville fell in at his mouning so disconnected Mr. Mack that he submitted the case without argument. Lawyer Thatcher in an able argument dissected the defense and showed the improbability of its being true. Justice Woodhead, who was on the bench, found the defendant guilty and fined him $15. Kalp appealed and was held in $100 bonds for the superior court in January.

Dr. Ward to Leave Town.

The community will learn with regret that Dr. H. S. Ward has sold out and will leave town, as soon as he can fix up his business affairs. The doctor met Dr. Perry of Monroe Bridge on the train the other day and said to him that if he learned of any one that wanted his practice to send them up. Perry finally concluded that he wanted it himself and a deal was closed last week. Perry taking possession of Ward's office Monday morning. Dr. ward has been in town several years and has built up a large practice and at the same time made many friends. His reason for selling as stated to THE TRANSCRIPT representative was that he did not wish to remain in town through another winter. He has not yet decided where he will locate, and will remain in Readsboro two or three months. Dr. Perry practiced medicine in this town several years previous to moving to Monroe Bridge and he is not a stranger among us by any means.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bullock left Monday for Heron Island for a few weeks' vacation.

—Dr. W. A. Parker of Holyoke was in town Saturday.

—Clarence Bullock has moved into Stowe's block over Bemis' store.

—Miss Rosie Perry is visiting in town.

—Mrs. Jonathan Sprague is to keep house for G. E. Pozzato.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Drury of Athol Center are at E. J. Bullock's looking after things while Mr. and Mrs. Bullock are away.

—Brown's orchestra has been engaged to furnish music for the Odd Fellows' ball August 13. Harry Brown will prompt. The same orchestra will play at Monroe Bridge tonight for a dance in the town hall.

MARRIED DEFEATS MAHONEY.

Boston, July 28.—One of the most interesting international tennis matches ever seen on this side of the water was played yesterday afternoon in the tournament of the Longwood Cricket club, at Longwood, and resulted in a victory for the American expert over his British opponent, after four brilliant sets had been played. William H. Larned of Summit, N. J., on whom it is said rests the hopes of this country in retaining the United States championship at Newport, R. I., next month, is the young man who proved too much for the English champion, Harry S. Mahoney, and justified by his brilliant work the confidence which is now imposed upon him.

FATAL BUGGY ACCIDENT.

President Rolker Says New York Meeting Was Packed.

Boston, July 28.—President Rolker of the Massachusetts Benefit Life association has returned to this city from New York. When questioned concerning the meeting he held in New York, at which, according to the dispatches, over 300 members decided to quit the association, and a transfer to an old line company was authorized, President Rolker said: "The meeting was packed and I doubt if more than half were policy holders" of the Massachusetts Benefit Life association. There were not more than 75 present at the outside, and the statement of over 300 is nonsense. These outsiders did not attend the meeting to calmly and justly consider the wisest thing to do or to listen to me. They came to make a sensation and to base a foundation for a broadcast statement that an army of policy holders had decided to quit in a body. "The important features of the meeting from the association's standpoint did not appear in the dispatches at all. For instance, the remarks of Louis Windmiller, who is a prominent New Yorker and director of the company, fully applauded by many, but found no place in the dispatches. Now what are the true facts of the meeting? There were 75 present and of these a goodly number had no interest as members of the Massachusetts benefit Life association. "About a dozen expressed their willingness and intention to pay. The proposition made that Louis Windmiller of New York receive moneys, conditional on the company's pulling through, was accepted by many, and this will be done. The meeting was called in the interest of people who hope to get a commission from an old line company on as many members as they can transfer to it, and of the New York members the meeting did not express the sentiments of 2 per cent.
